MONDAY, AUGUST 25, 1862

Among the Pines.

Trinung Chuns.—To camble our submitted "Among the Fines" at a low rate, we will see Scapies or 22 campade.—35 of if by spress.

10 Copies for 8.1 postpade.—30 of the process

10 Copies for 8.1 postpade.—30 of the process

fress THE TRIBU E. No. 154 Nassurat., No.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE WAR.

was supposed that the Rebels would asson their attace on Batein Rouge. The destruc-bonal-desouville was complete, only a few 4 walls brang eff. All the towns along the te teen notified that firing from their limits on triansures will subject them to similar fact. Busier has confined all the dark Busier has confined all the fact. Busier has confined all the Batein Batein Batein Batein Batein String was the Batein Batein Batein String was confined to the Batein String was not been a facility of the December of the Batein Batein Batein String was not been a facility of the String was not been a facility of the String was not been a facility of the Louistan, was no obles at Third respective rank of our maynl officers icially established under the new law. T active Rear-Admirak, and 8 retired; 6, 18 newe 18 ratived; Captains, 50 are 4, 10 reserved; Commanders, 91 active 13 reserved; Lieutenant-Commanders,

-Gen. Boyle, Provost Murshal of Louisville, herdered that the large entates of fucilities along poso.

— Gen. R. W.; Johnson, with 800 Union soldiers, seked 1,700 Rebeis under Morgan/near (Iuliutin, a schested, under Morgan/near (Iuliutin, a schested, und himself and 300 men taken prisas. The disputch making this statement does not when it occurred. This South-Western news fatig more and more shaky.

Harrisburg editors, who were arrested for a handbill discouraging enlistments, have sted, having given their parole to do no tot. They claim that they have done no

Fort Ye

Hos. Horace Greeley: Wassinstron, August 22, 162, 5

DEAR Sir: I have just read yours of the 19th, addressed to myself through THE N. Y. TRIBURE. If there be in it any statements or issumptions of fact which I may know to be erroneous, I do not now and here controvert them. If there be in

I would save the Union. I would save it the hortest way under the Constitution. The sooner nor seek any reply to my formor letter unless the through your official acts. I thank you for ten having accorded one, since it enables me to say 1'r crullently that nothing was further formore.

that you may promptly and practically to that Slavery is to be vanquished only

INDIAN INQUEDENES.

It is a fact of no small significance that the leasen which boasts of its Chivairy and its natural and cultivated aptitude for the pursuit review, of arms, and regards the logal States as emis-sharpsho mently peaceful, commercial, money-getting, town as remultir and partial plants of the secondary of the matter of public and, and and the contract of the contract and there agreed Slave Power which is now in has of 1900, and mere agrees. Slave Power which is now in rebenion as they could have put Lirough and attrium; to destroy our Union. If a destroy our Union, if the strength have been sheeted. But live the strength and Lincoln and Lincoln.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The President's Letter to Mr. Greeley

DR. BROWNSON HAS A TALK WITH THE PRESIDENT.

The President Gives Some Hope on Emancipation.

PREPARATIONS FOR AFRICAN COLONIZATION.

Draft to Commence September 1.

More Interesting Statements by Mr. Hurlburt.

KILLED AND WOUNDED IN RECENT SKIRMISHES

on the entrope of Communication, but argon remaining a from as a mann of saving the country, and as a stop which must be taken before Commission on a large scale conjudecome practicable.

The fall of the President was in a hopeful strain.

He said that he was not fully persuaded that it was