Abstract

Stella Grobe, Ronald Reagan, ISR-V-D-2010 065

Biographical Information Overview of Interview: Stella Grobe is a native of Dixon, Illinois. She is associated with the Lee County Historical Society and has conducted extensive research on Ronald Reagan and Dixon. She attended South Central High School and was a freshman when Ronald Reagan was a senior in 1929. After she graduated in 1932 she worked in the office of the high school during the time that Mr. Frazier and eventually Mr. Lancaster were principal. She met Ronald Reagan during her time working at the high school as Mr. Frazier was a mentor and life long friend of Reagan. In 2003, the main research facility for the Lee County Historical Society in Dixon was named the Stella Grobe Research Center.

Subject Headings/Keywords: Lee County Historical Society; South Central High School; Mr. Frazier

Note to the Reader: Readers of the oral history memoir should bear in mind that this is a transcript of the spoken word, and that the interviewer, interviewee and editor sought to preserve the informal, conversational style that is inherent in such historical sources. The Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library is not responsible for the factual accuracy of the memoir, nor for the views expressed therein. We leave these for the reader to judge.
