Abstract

Gary Joyner, Veterans Remember-Vietnam, VRV-A-L-2021-02?

Biographical Information/Overview of Interview: Gary Joyner was born in Shawneetown, Illinois in November 1944 and grew up near the small town of Equality, Illinois. He attended high school in Dixon, Illinois while dreaming of flying someday, and graduated in 1962. In November 1963 he enlisted in the U.S. Army with the intent of becoming an Army aviator. Following Basic Training at Ft. Knox, Kentucky, he attended the Warrant Officer Course, simultaneously receiving flight training on helicopters. In November 1964 he completed his flight training and was promoted to Warrant Officer 1. Later that month Gary arrived in South Vietnam, initially assigned to an aviation platoon in the southern part of the country flying UH-1 Huey slicks and gunships. He was later transferred to the DaNang area. Gary was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross while stationed in Da Nang.

WO-1 Joyner was next assigned to Ft. Wolters, Texas as an instructor pilot. In November 1966 he received a direct commission to Second Lieutenant and attended the Armor Officer Basic Course at Ft. Knox, Kentucky. By January 1968 he was back in South Vietnam assigned to the 7th Squadron, 1st Air Cavalry Regiment. During this tour of duty, he served in a variety of both command and staff positions and earned a Silver Star for gallantry. Upon returning to the U.S. he married Jill Pence before becoming an instructor at the Army's new Warrant Officer Career Course, then returned to Ft. Knox for the Armor Officer Advance Course. Over the next sixteen years he continued to advance in his career, with more aviation billets, including a rewarding tour with the Australian Army, followed by aviation safety positions, and for his last few years while stationed at Rock Island Arsenal in Illinois, as an Organizational Effectiveness Consultant. Much of that tour was spent visiting ammunitions and ordnance plants across the country. He retired from the Army as a Lieutenant Colonel in April 1986. Gary also shared his born-again experience in October 1983, an experience that changed the direction of his and Jill's life thereafter.
