

ALPLM Social Story

I am going to the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library and Museum!

There will be lots of people there.

They will be looking at the exhibits.

I can stop and look at the exhibits too.

There will be many different exhibits to see.

I can walk through them.

I can look at the exhibits and artifacts.

I shouldn't touch them because an alarm might go off.

I can go see Ghosts of the Library. It has some flashing lights and loud noises.

I can see the Lincoln's Eyes show too. It also has some flashing lights and loud noises.

I might want to wear noise cancelling headphones if I go to either of the shows.

I can visit Mrs. Lincoln's Attic. It is an exhibit for kids and I can touch everything.

I can talk about what I see at the museum, but I should use my quiet voice.

Even if I am excited, I cannot run between exhibits. I should stay with my guardian.

There are so many exhibits to see and fun things do!

Visiting the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library and Museum is fun!
