

Winter Family Bingo

Attend Little Lincoln's Fireside Tales: Winter!	Family History Show & Tell Share the stories of cherished family heirlooms.	Help a Grown Up Around the House Cooking, cleaning, or organizing.	Build a Winter Diorama Grab a shoebox and build a snowy scene using things you find outside or around the house.	Have a DIY Family Jam Session Make instruments with stuff you find around the house then jam!
Build a Snowman	Look Up a Local Charity and Give Back!	Hold a Family Board Game Tournament	Attend Jr. Historians Live! Family Trivia Night	Throw an All-Day Pajama Party
Make Pinecone Bird Feeders Hunt for pinecones, roll them in peanut butter, and cover with birdseed.	Throw a Family Dance Party Make a playlist of the songs from the years everyone was born and dance!	 Abraham Lincoln PRESIDENTIAL LIBRARY AND MUSEUM	Ask Your Grown Up to Share and Read Their Favorite Childhood Book	Help Shovel Snow Get the whole family involved!
Experiment with Static Electricity Socks + Carpet = Science!	Create a Winter Memories Scrapbook	Collect an Oral History Learn More Here!	Schedule a Virtual Storytime Call or Video Chat a Friend or Family Member and Share a Book from Afar.	Go Look at Holiday Decorations Around the Neighborhood
Create and Send Homemade Greeting Cards	Attend Jr. Historians Reading Club: The Vanderbeekers of 141st St.	Create a Family Tree Include cute baby pictures of all your relatives.	Drink Hot Cocoa	Host Family Storytime Kids and grown ups take turns reading your favorite books.